adversely affect the interests of MHI during their engagement in respect of the performance of the Contract or otherwise related to their obligations under the Contract. The Individual Consultants shall perform their obligations under the Consultancy Contract with the fullest regard to the interests of MHI. The Individual Consultants are enjoined not to offer any direct or indirect benefit arising from or related to performance of the Contract or the award thereof the Consultancy engagement to any representative, official, employee or other agent of MHI. The Individual Consultants shall comply with all laws, ordinances, rules and regulations bearing upon the performance of their obligations under the Consultancy Contract. In the performance of the Consultancy Contract, the Individual Consultant shall comply with the Standards of Conduct. Failure to comply with the same is grounds for termination of the Consultancy Contract governing the Consultancy.

18. Prohibition of Sexual Exploitation and Abuse

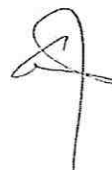

During the performance of the Consultancy Contract, the Individual Consultants shall comply with the "Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013" and any amendment in the law made consequently read with any rules or regulations issued in this regard by Government of India. Violation of the said provisions will constitute a breach of the terms of the Consultancy Contract and will attract penal provisions, including the termination of the contract. In addition, nothing herein shall limit the right of MHI to refer any alleged breach of the foregoing standards of conduct to the relevant statutory authorities for appropriate legal action.

19. Title Rights, Copyrights, Patents and Other Proprietary Rights:

19.1.1 Title to any equipment and supplies that may be furnished by MHI to the Individual Consultants for the performance of any obligations under the Consultancy Contract shall rest with MHI, and any such equipment shall be returned to MHI at the conclusion of the Consultancy Contract or when no longer needed by such Individual Consultant. Such equipment, when returned to MHI, shall be in the same condition as when delivered to the Individual Consultant, subject to normal wear and tear, and the Individual Consultant shall be liable to compensate MHI for any damage or degradation of the equipment that is beyond normal wear and tear.

19.1.2 MHI shall be entitled to all intellectual property and other proprietary rights, including, but not limited to, patents, copyrights and trademarks, with regard to products, processes, inventions, ideas, know-how or documents and other materials which the Individual Consultant has developed for MHI under the Consultancy Contract and which bear a direct relation to or are produced or prepared or collected in consequence of, or during the course of, the performance of the Consultancy Contract, and the Individual Consultant acknowledges and agrees that such products, documents and other materials constitute works made during the engagement for MHI. 19.2 Confidential Nature of Documents and Information: The Individual Consultant shall be subject to the provisions of the Indian Official Secrets Act, 1923. The Individual Consultants shall not, except with the previous sanction of MHI or in the bona fide discharge of their duties, publish a book or a compilation of articles or participate in TV/

Radio broadcast/ Social Media or contribute an article or write a letter in any newspapers or periodical either in their own name or anonymously or pseudonymously in the name of any other person, if such book, article, broadcast or letter relates to subject matter assigned to them by MHI. The Individual Consultant is prohibited from sharing any material that was created as part of the Consultancy or received during the engagement at the MHI from external agencies or from within MHI. In the event of premature termination or completing the Consultancy Contract, the Individual Consultant shall duly handover all related documents, communications, reports etc. to the reporting officer, while, the obligations of the provisions of The Official Secrets Act, 1923 shall remain effective for all intents.

20. Force Majeure and other Conditions

20.1 Force majeure as used herein means any unforeseeable and irresistible act of nature, any act of war (whether declared or not), invasion, revolution, insurrection, or any other acts of a similar nature or force, provided that such acts arise from causes beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of any Individual Consultant.

20.2 The Individual Consultants acknowledge and agree that, with respect to any obligations under the Consultancy Contract that they must perform in or for any areas in which MHI is engaged in, preparing to engage in, or disengaging from any peacekeeping, humanitarian or similar operations. Any delay or failure to perform such obligations arising from or relating to harsh conditions within such areas or to any incidents of civil unrest occurring in such areas shall not, in and of itself, constitute force majeure under the Consultancy Contract.

21. Termination: The MHI can terminate the Consultancy Contract at any time without prior notice and without providing any reason for it. MHI reserves the right to terminate the services of an Individual Consultant at any stage, in the event of failure in the performance of the assigned task or in the case of a failure to observe the prescribed standards of conduct as set out in para 17 of these Guidelines. However, in the normal course, MHI will provide one month's notice to the Individual Consultant. The Individual Consultant can also seek for termination of the Consultancy Contract upon giving one month's notice to the MHI.

22. Conflict of Interest: The Individual Consultants shall be expected to follow all the rules and regulations of the Government of India which are in force. They will be expected to display utmost honesty, secrecy of office and sincerity while discharging their duties. In case, the services of any Individual Consultant are not found satisfactory or found in conflict with the interests of the MHI /Government of India, his/her engagement will be liable for discontinuation without assigning any reason.

This issues with the concurrence of IFD and with the approval Secretary, MHI.
